

WORLD TRADE ASSOCIATION

A service of the MMAC

Biography –

Dilip Sawhney “DILIP”; Managing Director – India; Rockwell Automation India Pvt Ltd., Noida, India

Dilip is responsible for leading Rockwell Automation’s India business – developing the market, creating partnerships and building a team that serves customers across industries, all over the country. Dilip has three decades of experience in Industrial Automation & Healthcare technology industries.

He joined Rockwell Automation in August 2008. He graduated with Honors in Electrical Engineering from IIT Roorkee.

Dilip began his career in with Larsen & Toubro Ltd thru their GET program. In 1995 Dilip joined GE as Sales Manager with GE Fanuc and grew to the position of country CEO through roles of increasing responsibility in India and the USA. In 2005 Dilip moved to GE Healthcare as Vice President – Sales for South Asia from where he moved to Rockwell Automation in his current assignment.

Dilip was the past President of Automation Industry Association (AIA) and is presently the Co-Chair of CII’s Smart Manufacturing Council.

Dilip is married to Anju and they live in New Delhi with their two daughters.

dsawhney@ra.rockwell.com

* * *

Rockwell Automation is the world’s largest company solely dedicated to Industrial Automation and Information. Our strategy is to bring The Connected Enterprise to life. We integrate control & information across the enterprise to help industrial companies and their people be more productive.

We know how to connect the imaginations of people with the potential of machines to make the world work better. At Rockwell Automation, we are expanding human possibility™.